

Have you ever thought of divorce?

Would you take this survey?

Louisville authors Hazel D. Parrish and Wanda Johnson-Hall are seeking women married six years or more to volunteer to complete a survey that will be included in their upcoming book, Helping God Win! Turning Around Unhealthy Marriages, due to be released in the spring of 2006. All information will be compiled into chapters of the book. If you do not want your name used, please indicate that on the survey. Only first names will be used. You may also choose a pseudonym.

Please return the survey to Goose Creek Publishers, Inc. 9900 Corporate Campus Drive, Ste. 3000, Louisville, KY 40223, or take the survey online at goosecreekpublishers.com. If you want to speak with one of the authors call leave a message at 502-657-6383 and they will contact you.

You may email them at hazel@goosecreekpublishers.com and wanda@goosecreekpublishers.com.

Survey

1. Briefly describe what situation or event led to you wanting to leave your marriage?
2. How much support did you get when you were thinking about dissolving your marriage?
3. Did you want to save your marriage? Why?
4. What type of support did you get when you decided to save your marriage?

5. At what point did you ask God to help you save your marriage? (What did he say?)

6. Before submitting to God's will for your marriage, what other avenues did you pursue to save the marriage?

7. What were challenges in following God's plan?
